

Trenton Klaz Full Bio:

Based in Miami, Florida, Trenton Klaz is a highly accomplished pianist, composer, and bandleader known for his exceptional talent and versatility. With a strong foundation in classical training, Trenton has excelled in the art of piano, keyboards, and synthesizers, captivating audiences with his virtuosity and creative interpretations of jazz standards. Drawing inspiration from piano legends such as Chick Corea, Michel Camilo and Bill Evans, Trenton has developed a distinctive fusion of latin jazz, rock and classical genres.

Trenton has earned a Bachelor of Music degree at the University of Florida, where he honed his piano technique under the guidance of Dr. Kevin Sharpe and studied jazz improvisation with Scott Wilson. Furthering his passion for jazz, he pursued a Master of Music degree at the prestigious Frost School of Music at the University of Miami, studying under renowned pianists including Martin Bejerano, Shelly Berg, Gonzalo Rubalcaba, Alex Brown, Kemuel Roig, and Tal Cohen. Today, Trenton continues his studies at the Frost School of Music as he pursues a Doctorate of Musical Arts.

An avid performer, Trenton has graced the stages of various renowned venues and festivals. He has showcased his talent at notable jazz series such as the Hippodrome Jazz Series and The Keys Jazz Series in Gainesville, Florida. Trenton has also performed with the tour-de-force fusion group Mindwalk at the 16th Gainesville Jazz Festival and Tom Petty Weekend at Heartwood Soundstage. Trenton has had the honor of performing with many esteemed artists including Wycliffe Gordon, Bobby Shew, Maria Schneider, Troy Roberts, Dafnis Prieto, Brian Lynch, Rex Richardson, Brazilian Voices, and the Glenn Miller Orchestra.

Throughout his career, Trenton has earned accolades and recognition for his exceptional abilities. He achieved third place in the UF Concerto Competition in 2018 and in the following year, he secured second place in the Ocala Young Artist Competition which led to a memorable performance of George Gershwin's Concerto in F with the reputable Ocala Symphony Orchestra at the Reilly Arts Center. In 2019, Trenton was honored with the Archie Wingfield Jazz Minor Award, a testament to his dedication and commitment to the art form.

In addition to his work as a performer, Trenton has embraced opportunities as an instructor, lending his expertise to ensembles and musical institutions. He had the honor of being a guest artist for the University of Florida Jazz Band and the Brazilian Music Institute's "Ella Jazz Across Cultures" program in 2021, where he shared his knowledge of Brazilian based jazz fusion with aspiring musicians. As Trenton continues to evolve as a pianist, composer, and bandleader, his artistic journey promises to push the boundaries of music and captivate audiences worldwide. With his exceptional skills, diverse influences, and passion for musical expression, Trenton stands at the forefront of the contemporary jazz scene and seeks to leave an indelible mark on the music industry.

Trenton Klaz Medium Bio:

Based in Miami, Florida, Trenton Klaz is a highly accomplished pianist, composer, and bandleader. With a solid classical training background, he has excelled at the piano, keyboards, and synthesizers, captivating audiences with his virtuosity and creative interpretations. Influenced by jazz legends like Chick Corea, Michel Camilo, and Bill Evans, Trenton has developed a distinctive style that blends latin jazz, rock, and classical genres. He holds a Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Florida as well as a Master of Music degree at the prestigious Frost School of Music at the University of Miami, where he currently pursues a Doctorate in Musical Arts. Trenton has showcased his talent at esteemed venues such as Heartwood Soundstage and the Reilly Arts Center, and has collaborated with notable artists including Wycliffe Gordon, Bobby Shew, Dafnis Prieto, Maria Schneider, the Ocala Symphony Orchestra, and the Glenn Miller Orchestra. Honored with awards and accolades, including placing in various concerto competitions, Trenton's passion for music radiates, as he shares his expertise with aspiring musicians and pushes the boundaries of contemporary jazz, seeking to leave an indelible mark on the global music scene.

Trenton Klaz Short Bio

Trenton Klaz is a pianist, composer and bandleader, boasting exceptional versatility. Drawing inspiration from jazz piano legends, he fuses Latin, rock and classical into his distinctive style. He is currently pursuing his Doctorate from the Frost School of Music at the University of Miami. Trenton has graced stages and festivals such as Tom Petty Weekend at the Heartwood Soundstage and has collaborated with acclaimed artist like Wycliffe Gordon and Maria Schneider. Trenton also shares his expertise as a private instructor and guest lecturer. His artistic journey continues to push musical boundaries, leaving an indelible mark on the contemporary jazz scene.

